The Other Side

No wonder the world seems sick when most of the news we read or listen to features crime, war, drug abuse, divorces, accidents, protest demonstrations or strikes. But there is a positive side to life that is worth remembering if you think ours is really a sick society.

A newspaper publisher, Charles Gould of the SAN FRANCISCO EXAMINER, cites the following statistics for 1970-71:

- More than 196 million people were NOT arrested:
- More than 89 million married persons did NOT file for divorce;
- More than 49 million students did NOT riot or petition to destroy our system;
- More than 9 million young men did NOT burn their draft cards;
- More than 75 million citizens and corporations paid more than $160 billion in income taxes;
- More than 115 million people were formally affiliated with some religious group.

Mr. Gould also said, "Never before in history has a people accomplished so much, given so much, and asked for so little..Our society is far from perfect, but it is also far and away the most enlightened, most unselfish, most compassionate in the world's history...Let those apostles of despair who preach hate and disorder ask themselves what they have done and are doing for the good of their loved ones, their nation, and the world."
